SAUNDERS LIKELY TO RETAIN SEAT

Carlin Thinks His Chances Good. Discusses Work of Congress.

Congress.

It is not at all certain that Representative E. W. Saunders, of the Fifth Virginia District, will lose his seat in Congress because of the unfavorable report of the committee, according to Representative C. C. Carlin, of the Eighth District, who was in Richmond yesterday. In fact, Mr. Carlin thinks Judge Saunders's chances of retaining the sent are excellent.

Nearly every precedent, it is understood is along the line that States may arrange their congressional districts as they please, and that Congress has no right to impute improper motives to Virginia for taking Floyd county from the Fifth District and putting it in the Sixth. It is very doubtful, thinks Mr. Carlin, if a majority of members can be found who will vote to seat Senator Parsons under the circumstances.

Republican Rainbows.

As to the apparent rise in spirits among the Republicans of Congress with regard to the approaching elections, Mr. Carlin thinks there is little real cause for any hope. "The Republicans have been discouraged so long that anything is sufficient to give them some heart." he said. "The real reason for hope is that they were able to agree on a day for adjournment. This being the only thing they have agreed in hink they have agreed in hink they have some chance.

"It believe the next House will be Democratic.

"What have they to say to the country?" he continued. "They failed to

"I believe the next House will be Democratic,
"What have they to say to the country?" he continued. "They failed to keep their campaign promises as to a revision of the tariff in the interest of the consumer. No amount of campaign talk can explain that away. They have not passed a single bill as a party which is for the interest of the country as a whole. The administration has done nothing. The measures enacted were nothing like those which came from the White House. Mr. Tatt would hardly recognize the railroad rate bill if he met it on the street. The Insurgents put in it more than Mr. Taft did.

Duties of Railroad Men.

The Insurgents put in it more than ir. Taft did.

Duties of Railroad Men.

"This bill." said Mr. Carlin, "turns he railroads of the country over to he Republican party. That is about he effect. All the railroad officials will have to do in the future will be to pay off."

The Alexandria Congressman also lass an unfavorable online of the possal savings bank bill. While it profides that 65 per cent. of the postal avings deposits shall be placed in local banks, this is to be the case only of the amount of the capital stock and large deposits. The result, he thinks, will be had on such as the two or three larger cities fithe capital stock and large deposits. The result, he thinks, will be had most of the money will go to banks in the two or three larger cities fithe country.

Then, again, another way to catch money is in the provision for the purchase of bonds. In multiples of $20 he depositor may exchange his 2 per tent, deal for the purchase of a government bond bearing 24 per cent. The money then goes to Washington for transfer to central banks. The effect will be to central banks. The effect will be to centralize the money of the country.

The country.

The money the goes to Washington for the purchase of a government bond bearing 24 per cent. The money then goes to Washington for the ports of the country.

The country of the surplus of the surplus of the capital stock and large deposits. The result, he thinks will be held in Reno on the afternoon of July 4, with no interference from any one. Mr. Rickard, as referee and promoter, has assured me that the fight will be honestly conducted. Beyond this I have no concern with it. I have known Mr. Rickard for several years and his word is sufficient for men of the post of the first men deal of the capital stock and large deposits. Their Dash at Latonia Holds Centre of Interest in Day's Events.

Latonia, Ky., June 28.—A dash for two-year-olds held the centre of interest at Latonia to-day. All of the entries except Lochiel, who finished first, are eligible for the Cincinnati trophy stakes to be run Saturday, and the contest was considered a tryout for that event Lochiel was purchased by Guy Bedwell just before he shipped his stable here from the East.

The track was in poor condition, to-day's hot sun having dried it only in spots. Form players again had a hard time picking winners, and this disability was increased at least in the fourth race by straggling starts.

Henley H. Hall, of Woodland Heights, had a premonition about midnight or carly yesterday morning as he approached his home that an episode in his life was about to be unturied. So he felt for his revolver to meet the unexpected. In the flickering shadows he perceived—he wasn't positive at first—but on nearer view he stalked into a human being, rather large and black. He fired at random, and the negro forsook the protection of the porch and made tracks as if he were fully acquainted with the chicken coop habit.
